COURSE #	COURSE TITLE	INSTRUCTOR

Note: In order to audit a class you must have 34 credit hours of required classes. That means letter-grade classes, independent studies, and case conferences. No case studies or treatments are to be considered. Also, you must get approval from the instructor and from the Director of Doctoral Programs.

ICSW students and alumni are eligible to audit any class that is offered, with the instructor's permission.

Charges for auditing depend on the status of the person making the request.

- There is no charge for full time students.
- Part time students who are enrolled in classes may audit for the reduced charge of $250 per class
- Students who are not currently taking any classes may audit for $500 per class Advanced students may audit for the reduced charge of $250 per class
- Alumni may audit for the reduced charge of $250 per class

Students in other doctoral programs may audit any class that is offered with both the Director of Doctoral Program's consent and with the instructor's permission. The charge for auditing will be $700 per class.
