

Financial Aid Timeline for the Prospective ICSW Student

October 2009-May 2010: Search and apply for Scholarships

ICSW offers primarily Stafford Loans provided through the William D. Ford Federal Direct Lending Program. Getting your Ph.D. is a significant financial commitment and ICSW strongly suggests offsetting this financial burden by using private scholarships.

January 1, 2010: The 2010-2011 FAFSA becomes available online at

<http://www.fafsa.ed.gov/>

It is important to fill out the FAFSA as early as possible after your 2009 income taxes are ready.

June 16, 2010: ICSW FAFSA Deadline

July 14, 2010: ICSW Financial Aid Forms Due

By this date you must submit:

- An ICSW Application for Financial Aid
- A Loan Request form
- A copy of your previous year's 1040 income taxes
- A proposed Student Cost of Attendance budget, if necessary

August 15, 2010: Signed Award Letter Due

After receiving your financial information from the FAFSA and your other financial aid materials, the Institute will package an award for you and send you a detailed Award Letter regarding the aid you will receive. If you accept this award, you may sign it and return it to the Institute. If you need to explore more options for financing your education, you may contact the Director of Student Services

September 1, 2010, or by 1st day of classes: Signed Master Promissory Note Due

If you are receiving Stafford or Grad PLUS loans, the lender will require that you sign a Master Promissory Note (MPN), which is a contract between borrower and lender wherein you as the borrower agree to repay your loans in full after you graduate, withdraw or drop below half-time status. This is the final step before disbursement of your loan, unless you are selected for verification.
