4

Title VI

- “No person in the United States shall, on the ground of race, color, or national origin, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance.”

© 2023 Husch Blackwell LLP

5

Application of Title VI

- Prohibits entities that receive federal funding from engaging in race discrimination.
- Applies to any program or activity receiving federal financial assistance.
- Enforced by OCR

9

Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964

- Prohibits discrimination in employment (private and public) on the basis of:
 - Race
 - Color
 - Religion
 - National Origin
 - Sex

© 2023 Husch Blackwell LLP

10

Requirements

- Must publicly post notices of Title VII requirements in “prominent and accessible places where notices to employees, applicants and members are customarily maintained”

11

Hot Topics

- Dear Colleague Letter from OCR (November 7, 2023)
 - Reminds schools of their legal obligation under Title VI to address discrimination and harassment and provide all students a school environment free from discrimination based on race, color, or national origin
- Numerous recent OCR resolution agreements addressing harassment and discrimination based on ancestry.
- EEOC guidance (September 29, 2023)
 - Incorporating Bostock v. Clayton County U.S. Supreme Court decision, which expanded protected characteristic of “sex” to include sexual orientation and gender identity under Title VII.

14

What does Title IX Cover?

- Recruitment, admissions, counseling
- Financial Assistance
- Gender equity in athletics
- Sex-based Harassment, including sexual assault and other forms of sexual violence
- Pregnancy and parenting
- Treatment of LGBTQI+ students
- Discipline
- Single-sex education
- Employment

15

Common Areas of Challenge

- Remembering that Title IX covers more than just sexual harassment (gender equity in athletics, pregnancy and parenting)
- Organizational structure
- Following proper procedures – and routing reports appropriately
- Training personnel
- Conflicts of interest/bias

© 2023 Husch Blackwell LLP

16

Compliance Requirements

- Designate a Title IX Coordinator
- Adopt and follow a grievance process to address Title IX Sexual Harassment
- Provide required training
- Document and keep appropriate records

© 2023 Husch Blackwell LLP

17

What sexual harassment does Title IX apply to?

- Title IX applies to sexual harassment in the “education program or activity” of a federal funding recipient
- Title IX defines “education program or activity” to include the “operations” of educational institutions
- Title IX does not apply to private conduct occurring in private location that is not part of education program/activity

Proper Procedures

- Remember what Title IX covers and route claims appropriately
- Educate your Title IX team members
- The formal grievance process must be used for allegations of sexual harassment, including sexual assault
- Informal resolution may be an option
- Post your training materials for your Title IX team members
- Retain your records

Pregnant Workers Fairness Act

- Pregnancy Protections in Title IX and the ADA
- Relatively new law (effective June 27, 2023) that applies only to accommodations
- Designed to address limitations under Title VII, ADA, and FMLA
- Does not replace federal or state laws that are more protective
- Proposed regulations issued August 11, 2023 (comments were due October 10, 2023)

© 2023 Husch Blackwell LLP

23

Who is protected?

- Employees and applicants of “covered employers” who have known limitations related to pregnancy, childbirth, or related medical conditions
- “Covered employers” include public and private employers with at least 15 employees (among others)

© 2023 Husch Blackwell LLP

24

Areas addressed

- Coverage is the same as Title VII and the ADA
- Reasonable accommodations are available (without undue hardship)
 - To help apply for a job
 - To perform a job
 - To enjoy equal benefits and privileges of employment
 - To temporarily suspend the performance of an essential function of a position (if certain conditions are met)
- Note: PWFA allows workers with uncomplicated pregnancies to seek accommodations, recognizing that even uncomplicated pregnancies may create limitations for workers

© 2023 Husch Blackwell LLP

25

Examples of accommodations

Ability to:

- Sit or drink water
- Receive closer parking
- Have flexible hours
- Receive appropriately sized uniforms and safety apparel
- Have additional break times
- Leave or time off to recover
- Be excused from strenuous and/or unsafe activities

© 2023 Husch Blackwell LLP

26

Covered employers cannot

- Require an employee to accept an accommodation without a discussion
- Deny a job or other employment opportunity based only a need for reasonable accommodation
- Require an employee to take a leave if another reasonable accommodation could be provided
- Retaliate
- Interfere with an individual's right under the PWFA

46

Respond to Incidents of Discrimination

- Respond and take corrective action when on notice of discrimination or harassment.
- Conduct prompt, thorough, and impartial inquiries designed to reliably determine what occurred.
- Assure responses are reasonable, timely, and effective.

© 2023 Husch Blackwell LLP

47

Process

- Implement policies and procedures in accordance with appropriate level of due process before reaching a finding and/or imposing discipline.
- Assure decision makers and others involved are trained on the process and their role.
- Be vigilant for signs of bias in the process or by decision-makers.

© 2023 Husch Blackwell LLP

48

Remediation

- If discrimination or harassment is found, take reasonable, timely, and effective corrective action.
- Act to stop the harassment, eliminate the hostile environment, and remedy the effects of the harassment on the individual who was harassed.
- Take steps to prevent the harassment from recurring, including disciplining the harasser where appropriate.
